

GLOBAL FELLOWS PROGRAM- Fall 2011

POSITIONS: Fellow/ Field Consultant

START DATE: Immediately (Latest start date of October 2011)

POSTED: August 22, 2011

LOCATIONS: Cajamarca, Peru

I-DEV International:

I-DEV International (www.idevinternational.com) is a full service management & financial strategy advisory firm for the development sector with offices in New York, Peru and Singapore. I-DEV fosters economic development through the creation of viable and sustainable small and medium sized enterprises (SMEs) at the base of the pyramid (BoP). The firm works with corporations and NGOs to provide BoP communities with the training, resources, and relationships needed to build financially-independent businesses that are tapped into existing markets at the national and international level. I-DEV's services include:

- Strategic management consulting for businesses at the base of the pyramid
- Business creation & incubation services for the BoP
- Financial strategy & management advisory services
- Supply chain and distribution network development and management consulting
- Strategic marketing and branding services
- Financial audit & transparency advisory services
- In-field CSR & development project design & management and project support & monitoring

Position Description & Duties:

I-DEV International's Global Fellows Program is designed to give young professionals with previous experience in the traditional business sector immersion training and experience into cutting-edge social entrepreneurship, market-based economic development and development financing. During the 1 year fellowship program, I-DEV provides Fellows with a living allowance, work related transportation costs (including flight to and from Peru), and medical insurance coverage. At the end of the program high performing Fellows may be extended offers to work with I-DEV at full salary.

Fellows will work closely with I-DEV's in-field project teams, headed by I-DEV Partners. Day-to-day activities will vary between working in I-DEV's Latin America regional office in Cajamarca, Peru, attending meetings with other development organizations, government agencies, and the I-DEV project team, and working in-the-field directly with I-DEV's project team and local communities. Primary responsibilities will be to manage the in-depth industry due diligence process, develop financial models, conduct detailed research and interviews, provide clients with management & financial strategy advice, and analyze business development opportunities. The position will likely involve a significant international travel to other developing countries in Latin America, Asia and Africa.

Qualifications:

Applicants must have at least 2 years of experience in the traditional business sector, preferably investment banking, management consulting, accounting, or other similar positions (or alternatively an MBA, or similar masters degree), as well as strong financial modeling, industry research and business analysis skills. A preference will be given to applicants who also have field experience.

Applicants must demonstrate an established record of professional achievement and integrity, and the capacity for critical, creative, and entrepreneurial thinking. Further, applicants should demonstrate a commitment to I-DEV's mission. Applicants must be willing to live in rural regions of developing countries and be fluent in Spanish.

How to Apply:

Send a cover letter and resume to the contact listed below, Subject Title: "Global Fellows Program". The rolling application process begins on August 22, 2011. Applicant will be chosen by end of October. Due to number of applications received, we can only send responses to those who are invited to interview.
